

Mini Story: Camel Packs

Julia and Maya make an unusual connection when they decide to make camel backpacks out of recycled materials available on the playground. Maya had seen her father wear a camel pack during a race, allowing him to take a drink while racing without using a water bottle.

