

Dinosaur

by Maya

This story is about dinosaur eggs. There was a mommy Maiasaura, and the mommy Maiasaur laid some eggs. When the baby Maiasauras were in their eggs they were all crunched up. Then the eggs hatched. Then the baby Maiasauras grew up and became mommies and daddies. There was one egg that wasn't a Maiasaurus egg. It hatched and the baby was lost. And that's all.
